STANDING COMMITTEE DECISION:

The Standing Policy Committee on Protection and Community Services concurred in the recommendation of the East Kildonan-Transcona Community Committee, namely, that the recreational bicycle and pedestrian pathway, commonly referred to as the Marconi Trail, be named the “North East Pioneer’s Greenway”, until such time as the property is utilized for transportation purposes.

Commemorative Cairn Funding Request

September 17, 2007

On behalf of the River East Neighbourhood Network – Trail Committee, I am requesting funding of a commemorative cairn to be located on the active transportation corridor/greenway at or near the intersection, south of Chalmers and Gateway/Raleigh. The cairn is pink granite and will be inscribed to commemorate the conversion of the Marconi Spur into a greenway. It will be installed in a cement base to minimize any chance of vandalism. The installed cost of the cairn is $2450.00. A quote from the supplier is attached for your benefit.
