EXECUTIVE SUMMARY

The existing Artwork Loan Agreement between The Convention Centre Corporation and the City of Winnipeg makes available for public view a significant collection of works by Aboriginal artists. The Agreement is for fifteen (15) years, terminating in 2028. Approval to amend this Agreement will demonstrate the City's commitment to cooperate with key civic partners to accomplish broad strategic goals for downtown renewal.

IMPLICATIONS OF THE RECOMMENDATIONS

No fees will be payable to the City by The Convention Centre Corporation for the City's permission for the exhibition. The Convention Centre Corporation is responsible for all costs, including insurance, relating to exhibition of the Christiane Laengin Collection.

HISTORY

In December of 2012, the City Clerk's Department on behalf of the City of Winnipeg accepted as a "Gift in Kind" from Christiane Laengin sixty-seven (67) artworks by Aboriginal artists. Artists included in the Christine Laengin collection are associated with the Woodland Art Movement, and their work reflects the world view and evolving philosophy of a significant constituency within the City's population. This gift was appraised at a fair market value of $31,540.00 (thirty-one thousand, five hundred and forty dollars) by Gail Nep, Fine Art Consultant.

On March 20, 2013 Council approved a request from The Convention Centre Corporation for the long term exhibition of the Christiane Laengin collection and adopted the following:

1. That a fifteen (15) year agreement with The Convention Centre Corporation be approved for exhibition at the Winnipeg Convention Centre of the aboriginal artwork donated to The City of Winnipeg by Christiane Laengin in December 2012.

2. That the Chief Administrative Officer be delegated the authority to finalize the terms and conditions of the agreement with The Convention Centre Corporation and to approve extensions of the agreement.

On April 28, 2015, the City Clerk's Department on behalf of the City of Winnipeg accepted as a "Gift in Kind" four (4) additional artworks by Aboriginal artists from Christiane Laengin. These artworks have been appraised at a fair market value of $18,000.00 (eighteen thousand dollars) by Gail Nep, Fine Art Consultant and are also to be exhibited in the Winnipeg Convention Centre expansion now under construction.
