Minutes – Executive Policy Committee – July 4, 2018

REPORTS

Item No. 4 Water Provision at Community Gardens in the William Whyte and Hugh John McDonald Neighbourhoods

EXECUTIVE POLICY COMMITTEE RECOMMENDATION:

The Executive Policy Committee concurred in the recommendation of the Winnipeg Food Council, as amended, and directed the Winnipeg Public Service to consult relevant stakeholders and report back to the appropriate Standing Policy Committee of Council on the feasibility and costs of water provision to community gardens in the William Whyte and Hugh John McDonald neighbourhoods, as well as other low income areas throughout the City of Winnipeg.

DECISION MAKING HISTORY:

Moved by Councillor Mayes,

That the recommendation of the Winnipeg Food Council be concurred in.

Councillor Mayes accepted a friendly amendment from Councillor Gilroy to his motion to read as follows:

That the recommendation of the Winnipeg Food Council be concurred in with the following amendment:

- Add the words ", as well as other low income areas throughout the City of Winnipeg." to the end of the recommendation of the Winnipeg Food Council.
