STANDING COMMITTEE ON FISCAL ISSUES

QUESTION PERIOD

Minute No. 161
Councillor Steek questioned the amount of the potential shortfall for the 2004 budget, to which Councillor Clement advised that the answer was quite comprehensive and would be addressed at the Council Seminar.

Councillor Steek noted that the City of Winnipeg was currently in the Supreme Court of Canada trying to preclude a lawsuit from being brought forward by the Hotel Association and questioned what the cost of this action was, to which Councillor Clement replied that he would inquire with the Legal Services Department and respond to Councillor Steek.
