Comments in writing: EPC #7 WPS funding: I like the status quo, so this has a happy ending.. WPS had 2 funding controversies before this PR process began. The process ignored both. 1. How much funding should we devote to WPS? 2. Should these funds be from the city's coffers, or from the profit generated by WPS operations? While the total cost of generating this report is not mentioned, it was money wasted. The 'public consultation' fails to grapple with either matter. If asked, the public would have told Council to remove this conflict of interest from the shoulders of this very essential service. If I had asked for this consultation, I would feel cheated by what we got.
