Comments in writing: As I expect you have heard before, a lobbyist registry which is voluntary, and ignored can serve no deterrent effect on misbehaviour. Some say this deceives the public. Council has boasted that establishing this voluntary registry means that no more action (on undue influence) is needed.

Bylaw: Sweeping all investigations under the carpet for 6 months is a path far from transparency. This should not be applied to any person not seeking election in October. That such rules are brought forward is a powerful indictment of city hall processes.
