The fact that the names of those to be appointed has been omitted is most likely due to:
1. The names have been chosen too late to be added to the published Agenda, or 2. The composition of these 3 boards must be kept secret from the public that funds them, for a bona fide reason, or 3. This is an attempt to confound the promises of transparency made by city officials. I will not speculate on which, but I believe that you should all re-think every time the city works against the lofty goal of full transparency.
