Service inquiry: Register as a Delegation, Submit Comments in writing
Participation preference: Via Zoom
Comments in writing: When a city finance officer declares that "receiving as info" a report on a very expensive program, has no financial implications for the city, it suggests that accepting and funding major projects will cost us nothing. Is that correct? I have heard delegations more learned than myself question the logic of these blanket statements. Should we be concerned? If such a statement were made in error, what are the consequences for the officer?
