REASON FOR THE REPORT:

Mr. David Shepherdson, former Manager of Labour Relations and Compensation has left the City and resigned his position as a Representative. Mr. Shepherdson was one of the four City representatives on the Police Pension Board and his replacement requires Council approval.

HISTORY:

Section 4(2) of The Winnipeg Police Pension Plan by-law (by-law No. 6253/93) states,

> "The Board shall consist of:
>
> (a) two (2) Members appointed by The Winnipeg Police Association;
> (b) one (1) Member appointed by The Winnipeg Senior Officers' Association; and
> (c) four (4) representatives appointed by the City."

The four City representatives have historically been the Deputy Chief of Administration, two senior staff members from the Corporate Finance Department and a senior staff member from the Labour Relations Branch. At the present time the other three City representatives on the Police Pension Board are:

1. Menno Zacharias, Deputy Chief of Administration, Winnipeg Police Service
2. Michael Ruta, Corporate Controller, Corporate Finance Department
3. Betty Holsten Boyer, Manager of Financial Planning and Review, Corporate Finance Department

DISCUSSION:

The Labour Relations Specialist is a logical candidate for appointment to the Winnipeg Police Pension Board, so it is therefore recommended that Mr. Sudhir Sandhu be appointed by Council.

Sudhir Sandhu will be involved with the labour relations matters related to the Police Service and would make a valuable addition to the Winnipeg Police Pension Board.
