Item No. 5 Recognition of Olympic Athletes – Naming of Facilities, Park, Street File PR-2

COUNCIL DECISION:

In recognition of the achievements of the Winnipeg athletes of the 2006 Torino Olympic Games, Council concurred in the recommendation of the Executive Policy Committee and adopted the following:

1. That the Sargent Park Recreation Complex be renamed the Cindy Klassen Recreation Complex.

2. That the new indoor track to be constructed at the Cindy Klassen Recreation Complex be named the Olympian Indoor Track in honour of all Winnipeg's Olympic athletes.

3. That the street currently identified as "Recreation Road" in Appendix A be named "Cindy Klassen Way".

4. That the park currently identified as "new park" in Appendix A be named "Olympic Park".

5. That the Proper Officers of the City be authorized to do all things necessary to implement the intent of the foregoing.

Report – Executive Policy Committee – April 19, 2006

DECISION MAKING HISTORY:

Moved by His Worship Mayor Katz,

That the recommendation of the Executive Policy Committee be adopted by consent.

Carried

EXECUTIVE POLICY COMMITTEE RECOMMENDATION:

On April 12, 2006, the Executive Policy Committee passed the following motion, namely:

WHEREAS the following Winnipeg athletes achieved an exceptional level of success at the 2006 Torino Olympic Games:

Jennifer Botterill - women's hockey
Delaney Collins – women's hockey
Clara Hughes - speed skating
Mike Ireland – speed skating
Cindy Klassen - speed skating
Shannon Rempel - speed skating
Brittany Schussler – speed skating
Sami Jo Small – women's hockey;

AND WHEREAS speed skater Cindy Klassen has achieved an unprecedented list of accomplishments, including becoming the most decorated Olympian in Canadian history with six medals, having broken the Canadian single Games record by winning five medals at the 2006 Torino Olympic Games, having broken numerous speed skating world records; and having won two speed skating world championships;

AND WHEREAS Winnipeg residents are proud of the accomplishments of our Olympic athletes, and have expressed a desire to have these accomplishments be formally recognized by the City of Winnipeg;

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED that in recognition of the achievements of the Winnipeg athletes of the 2006 Torino Olympic Games, the Executive Policy Committee recommends to Council:

1. That the Sargent Park Recreation Complex be renamed the Cindy Klassen Recreation Complex.

2. That the new indoor track to be constructed at the Cindy Klassen Recreation Complex be named the Olympian Indoor Track in honour of all Winnipeg's Olympic athletes.
