Report

REASON FOR THE REPORT:

1. Council approval is required to establish the 2007 Home Renovation Tax Assistance Program.

2. To report back on the Executive Policy Committee request of January 18, 2006, to review recommendations submitted in delegation by Ken Klassen:

HISTORY:

On December 15, 1994, Council adopted the first HRTA Program (By-Law 6544/94) to "… establish a program of property tax credits to encourage and assist in the renovation of residential premises in the City of Winnipeg". The first Program was limited to homes constructed prior to 1971 and assessed at $80,000 or less. The maximum available tax credit was $750 and allocation was over five years. The next three Programs included the same eligibility criteria and tax credit provisions (By-Laws 6927/96, 6930/96 and 7137/97).

On May 27, 1998, Council adopted a new HRTA Program (By-Law 7230/98) with different eligibility criteria and tax credit provisions. Homes constructed prior to 1981 with an assessment of $100,000 or less were now eligible. As well, the maximum available tax credit was increased to $1,500 and allocation was over three years.

On March 24, 1999, Council adopted a new HRTA Program (By-Law 7384/99) with different eligibility criteria and a funding "cap". Homes constructed prior to 1974 with an assessment of $90,000 or less were now eligible. The total Program tax credit funding was limited to $975,000. Tax credit provisions remained at a maximum of $1,500 over three years. The next five Programs included the same eligibility criteria, tax credit provisions and total funding (By-Laws 7523/99, 7798/2001, 7943/2001, 8165/2002, 10/2004 and 88/2005).

On January 18, 2006, the Executive Policy Committee requested the Administration to report back after reviewing the following recommendations submitted in delegation by Ken Klassen:

1. Harmonize, to the maximum extent feasible, the technical requirements (i.e. minimum insulation levels, window performance requirements, minimum furnace and boiler efficiencies, etc.) for energy efficiency work covered by the 2006 Home Renovation Tax Assistance Program with the technical requirements used by Manitoba Hydro for their Power Smart loan and finance programs.

2. Track and then report back on the number of files processed and total tax credits issued for energy retrofit work completed under the 2006 Home Renovation Tax Assistance Program during 2006.

On January 25, 2006, Council adopted a new HRTA Program (By-Law No. 33/2006) with different eligibility criteria and tax credit provisions. Homes constructed prior to January 1, 1981 with an assessment of $114,400 or less were now eligible. As well, in addition to the 15% tax credit for Standard renovations, residents could now receive a 25% tax credit for a new category of Energy Efficiency renovations.

DISCUSSION:

The HRTA Program is primarily intended for renovation of older single family houses in Winnipeg. Accordingly, the Planning, Property and Development Department are recommending that the definition of a residential unit remain the same for a 2007 Program. Specifically, as stipulated in the 2006 By-Law, a "residential unit" means:

(a) a dwelling unit in a building that is used solely for residential occupation, other than;

(i) a mobile home located in a mobile home park or not constructed on a permanent foundation;

(ii) a building that is used wholly or partly as a hotel, motel, tourist camp, apartment hotel or other transient accommodation;

(iii) a building that is used as a nursing home or personal care home; and

(iv) a dwelling unit in a building that contains more than four dwelling units;

or

(b) a condominium unit that is used solely as a single dwelling unit for residential occupation, but not including the common elements of a condominium plan.

In order to provide direction for 2007 and future years, the Planning, Property and Development Department is recommending that the HRTA Program continue to operate on the basis of the following two principles: firstly, that all residential units must be 25 years of age or older in order to be eligible and secondly, that the HRTA Program be open to a minimum of 50% of all eligible residential units in Winnipeg. As a result of implementing these principles, a 2007 HRTA Program would be limited to homes constructed before January 1, 1982 with an assessment of $114,600 or less. Since these proposed 2007 eligibility requirements are virtually the same as the 2006 Program, any impact on the duration of the Program's operating period would be negligible (the 2006 Program operated for approximately six months from May to October).

In addition, the Planning, Property and Development Department is recommending that the 2007 HRTA Program should address a concern raised in the Final Report of the Red Tape Commission. On page 88 of that Report, the Commission noted that an applicant whose proposed renovation does not require a building permit must nonetheless apply for a building permit and pay the requisite fee in order to be eligible for the HRTA tax credit. The Commission specifically referred to a citizen submission which noted that, because of this rule, the citizen had paid approximately $45 for a permit but did not in fact receive an HRTA tax credit because the fund had been depleted prior to his or her application.

It should be noted that, in the circumstances described by the citizen, the permit fee would have been refunded to the applicant. Nevertheless, the Department agrees that it is unreasonable to expect that the individual should pay any permit fee when a permit is not otherwise required by by-law. Accordingly, the 2007 HRTA Program will eliminate this requirement and the attached draft By-law has been drafted to remove the requirement that applicants pay a permit fee when no permit is required for their proposed renovation.

The Planning, Property and Development Department submit the following comments with respect to the January 18, 2006 request by Executive Policy Committee to review the aforementioned recommendations of Ken Klassen.

Recommendation No. 1

"Harmonize, to the maximum extent feasible, the technical requirements (i.e. minimum insulation levels, window performance requirements, minimum furnace and boiler efficiencies, etc.) for energy efficiency work covered by the 2006 Home Renovation Tax Assistance Program with the technical requirements used by Manitoba Hydro for their Power Smart loan and finance programs."

In order to address this recommendation, the Planning, Property and Development Department implemented an administrative procedure with the 2006 HRTA Program that allows citizens to choose the Energy Efficiency Renovations category when entering the Program; which provides for a higher tax credit of 25% (as an alternative to the 15% tax credit for the Standard Renovations category).

In 2006, the Energy Efficiency Renovations category was limited to citizens who were undertaking the following type of renovations:

- repairing an existing primary heating system or replacing it with a new ENERGY STAR high-efficiency furnace or boiler;
- replacing a conventional heating and cooling system with a new geothermal heat pump;

- replacing an existing natural gas or electric water heater with a more efficient unit;
- adding insulation to attics, exterior walls, basements, crawlspaces or exposed floors;
- repairing existing windows (excluding skylight windows) and exterior doors or replacing them with new units;
- sealing, caulking and weather-stripping to reduce air leakage;
- upgrading an existing or installing a new ventilation system.

In addition, in order to be eligible for the higher tax credit, these renovations had to meet the technical requirements and guidelines of the Manitoba Hydro Power Smart Program.

In the proposed 2007 HRTA Program, the administrative criteria applied in 2006 are formalized and set out in the By-law to ensure that renovations that receive the higher tax credit are compatible with the technical requirements of the Manitoba Hydro Power Smart Program.

Recommendation No. 2

"Track and then report back on the number of files processed and total tax credits issued for energy retrofit work completed under the 2006 Home Renovation Tax Assistance Program during 2006."

In order to comply with Section 12 of By-Law 33/2006, the 2006 HRTA Program closed in late October of 2006 after generating 824 applications from citizens with eligible properties; consisting of 729 files in the Standard Renovations category and 95 files in the Energy Efficiency Renovations category. Of the latter 95 files, 87 citizens completed their Energy Efficiency renovation projects before the December 31, 2006 deadline; as required in accordance with Section 10 of By-Law 33/2006. The subject 87 files have been processed and the Planning, Property and Development Department will be notifying the City's Taxation and Revenue Branch of the Corporate Finance Department to issue a total of $98,897.46 of tax credits for 2006 Energy Efficiency renovations. The final tax credit for each individual property will be allocated as three separate reductions in the years 2007, 2008 and 2009.

Additional Comments: The tax credit costs that would be generated by the adoption of a 2007 by-law would impact operating costs for the years 2008 - 2010. These cost estimates are based on actual costs incurred in prior years adjusted slightly for the possibility of higher average project costs. These costs are not forecasted on the basis of program maximums, i.e. $325,000 per year, because administrative experience has shown that, although the maximum potential credits are approved through the application process, that the completed eligible projects generate lower total credits than the by-law allows. The amounts shown above are within approved budgets only if Council approves forecasted expenditures contained in the Department's 2007-2009 Operating Budget Submission. Note that the elimination of permit fees relative to Recommendation 20.3 of the Red Tape Commission Final Report are immaterial in nature and, therefore, excluded from this analysis.
