PUBLIC ART PROGRAM

We need art, in the arrangements of cities as well as in the other realms of life, to help explain life to us, to show us meanings, to illuminate the relationship between the life that each of us embodies and the life outside us.

Artist-in-Residence: Collin Zipp
lost_landscape

- Video artist Collin Zipp was in residence for one year beginning in June 2006
- In addition to working with the community, he created a permanent video installation for the LPM

At its best, public art roots communities in their histories, and fosters a sense of place.
