Minute No. 52 Request for Expenditure from the City Centre Land Dedication Reserve Fund - Grant Park High School
Item No. 2 of the Report of the Executive Policy Committee dated November 20, 2002
Council Minute No. 22
File EP-2 (Vol. 30)

EXECUTIVE POLICY COMMITTEE RECOMMENDATION:

The Executive Policy Committee re-iterates its decision of November 20, 2002, and recommends to Council:

That the recommendation from the City Centre Community Committee that the sum of $16,000.00 be approved to Grant Park High School from the City Centre Land Dedication Reserve to assist with the cost of replacing outdated and damaged equipment, microphones and sound board, as well as the addition of Performing Art band instruments utilized by all schools within The Winnipeg School Division No. 1 which were destroyed during restoration, not be concurred in.

The Executive Policy Committee further requested that the Chief Administrative Officer and the Executive Policy Committee Secretariat review the rationale of the criteria contained in the Land Dedication Reserve Fund Policy.

Provide a detailed description of the planned project. Please refer to the Guide to Applicants Item 8.

The performing arts association {Grant Park} is in the process of replacing outdated and damaged equipment as well as introducing a new dimension to the program.
We need to replace all of our microphones and sound board.
As well, we would like to introduce "Film and Video Editing" to our repetoire of Fine Arts programs for our members.
We require: 3 chip video cameras and computers.
This is an exciting project that will connect the community and the program together.

Thank you for your support.
