Report Summary

Key Issues:

- The 2008 HRTA Program should remain largely the same as for 2007 except that:
  - Low flush toilets would be added as an eligible renovation;
  - The assessment eligibility criteria would be raised by $1,000 to $115,600;
  - The eligibility for the date of construction would be moved up one year to January 1, 1983 (so that the age eligibility would remain at 25 years);

- The departmental budget for the HRTA program would be increased to $325,000 so that the full amount of tax credits for the program are more likely to be expended.

- Any tax credits that are unexpended in one year under the program would be transferred to the next year so that the full amount of tax credits allotted to the program would be used.

Implications of the Recommendation(s):

General Implications

( ) None

( ) For the organization overall and/or for other departments

(x ) For the community and/or organizations external to the City

( ) Involves a multi-year contract

Comment(s):
If the aforementioned Recommendations are adopted, it is likely that a 2008 HRTA Program will encourage Winnipeg residents to continue to renovate their homes and improve their neighbourhoods. As well, a 2008 HRTA Program will continue to provide an economic incentive for home renovations.

Report

REASON FOR THE REPORT:

Council approval is required to establish the 2008 Home Renovation Tax Assistance Program.

HISTORY

On December 15, 1994, Council adopted the first HRTA Program to "…establish a program of property tax credits to encourage and assist in the renovation of residential premises in the City of Winnipeg." The first Program was limited to homes constructed prior to 1971 and assessed at $80,000 or less. The maximum available tax credit was $750.00 and allocation was over five years. The next three Program years included the same eligibility criteria and tax credit provisions.

On May 27, 1998, Council adopted a new HRTA Program with different eligibility criteria and tax credit provisions. Homes constructed prior to 1981 with an assessment of $100,000 or less were now eligible and the maximum available tax credit was increased to $1,500 allocated over three years.

On March 24, 1999, Council adopted a new HRTA Program with amended eligibility criteria and a funding limit. Homes constructed prior to 1974 with an assessment of $90,000 or less were now eligible. The total Program tax credit funding was limited to $975,000 and the tax credit provisions remained as a maximum of $1,500 over three years. The following five Program years included these same eligibility criteria, tax credit provisions and a total funding limit.

On January 25, 2006, Council adopted a new HRTA Program with amended eligibility criteria and tax credit provisions. Homes constructed prior to January 1, 1981 with an assessment of $114,400 or less were now eligible. The opportunity to receive a 25% tax credit for energy efficient renovations was also added in this Program year.

On May 16, 2007, Council adopted a new HRTA Program with different eligibility criteria. Homes constructed prior to January 1, 1982 with an assessment of $114,600 or less were now eligible. In addition, Council implemented Red Tape Recommendation 20.3 of the Red Tape Commission's Final Report by eliminating the requirement for the payment of permit fees to apply for the HRTA Program tax credit when a proposed renovation was eligible for the Program but would otherwise not require a Building Permit.

On July 17, 2007 the Winnipeg Housing Steering Committee directed that a working group comprised of Councillor Vandal, members of the Public Service and the home renovation industry be established to investigate methods of improving the 2008 Home Renovation Tax Improvement Assistance Program and report back to the Steering Committee in January 2008.

The following two items were identified to be reviewed in relation to providing recommendations for the 2008 Home Renovation Tax Assistance Program:

(1) Utilization of any unexpended funds from one program year to the next;

(2) Review the criteria regarding the property assessment of a residential unit and a possible increase of that amount.

In the fall of 2007, Councillor Vandal as directed by the Winnipeg Housing Steering Committee met with the Renovator's Council facilitated by the Manitoba Home Builders Association. At the meeting various items were discussed along with the possibility of increasing the assessed value of the properties that would be eligible for the HRTA program. It was determined that, if the overall funding for the HRTA program was to remain the same, then the principle of 50% of all homes being eligible was a reasonable option. The possibility of carrying over funds was also discussed whereby allowing more homes to apply in future years was supported in principle by the group. As well there was a recommendation to include low flush toilets as an eligible renovation that would receive the same credits as Power Smart renovations (i.e. 25% as opposed to 10% for regular renovations).

2007 HRTA Program Summary

The 2007 HRTA Program closed in late October after generating 887 applications from owners with eligible properties. Of these, 121 qualified for the energy efficient Power Smart tax credit.

Of the 887 applications, 425 or 47.9% were completed prior to the December 31, 2007 deadline. These files which have processed with the construction value of $6,884,518 have been applied toward tax credits for the 2007 HRTA Program year and will be issued over three consecutive tax years in 2008, 2009 and 2010.

DISCUSSION:

The primary objective of the Home Renovation Tax Assistance Program (HRTAP) is to provide an economic incentive for home renovations, to reduce the perception that property owners are penalized for improving their properties and to encourage property owners to take out building permits thereby promoting the quality of construction in meeting applicable building, electrical and plumbing codes.

Program Operating Principles

Since 2006, the HRTA program has functioned in accordance with the following principles which Council has established to implement subsequent HRTA programs:

- The first principle is that all residential units must be 25 years of age or older to qualify, based on the premise that single family houses generally need major repairs and renovations after 25 years.
- The second principle is that the HRTA program be open to a minimum of 50% of all residential units in Winnipeg.

According to the City's Property Assessment Department records, Winnipeg presently has 156,790 single-family dwellings. Of this total, 78,503 properties have an assessment of $115,600 or less and were constructed prior to 1983 (i.e. 50 %). Although the principle of 50% of single family dwellings is used to determine the assessed value to be applied, the by-law does allow other types of dwellings, if owner occupied, to be eligible. Residential side-by-side, duplex, triplex, condos, etc. can also apply for the HRTA program. According to Assessment records, there are 185,365 properties that fall into this category and 98,388 properties (53% of the total) have an assessment of $115,600 or less and were constructed prior to 1983 (refer to attached Appendix III: Assessment Statistics for Proposed 2008 HRTA Program).

Consequently the Public Service recommends that the eligibility criteria for the 2008 program should be adjusted to provide for an assessed value of $115,600 in order to implement the principle of capturing a minimum of 50% of the eligible housing unit stock. In addition, the Public Service concurs with the suggestion of the HRTA Program Review Working Group to add low flush toilets to the list of eligible renovation projects.

At present, the program is adhering to the previously established HRTA Program Principles and is able to successfully commit all of the available budget funds within the existing eligibility criteria. In fact, the Program runs out of budget funds within approximately seven months.

If there were an increase to the assessed value eligibility criteria as discussed by the Program Review Working Group, eligible households would increase and the budget funds would be depleted sooner. The Program would end in a shorter time period unless there is an increase in the budget funding for the Program. An increase to the assessed value eligibility may also create an impression that the Program is intended for households who can afford to perform the renovations and is not supporting the lower valued homes.

Consequently the Public Service recommends that the 2008 HRTA Program be approved with the same eligibility criteria and residential unit conditions as the 2007 Program.

Unexpended Funds

The HRTA Program approved by Council, allows for a maximum tax credit expenditure of $325,000.00 per year for three years and the HRTA Program By-law restricts the Department to approve applications for which the tax credits do not exceed $325,000.00 in total for any of the three years of the Program. Therefore, the Program functions on a “first come, first served” basis. Since 2000, each annual Home Renovation Tax Assistance Program has consistently resulted in each Program being open to citizens for approximately seven months until the funds have been completely allocated to all of the approved projects.

Despite the fact that the maximum tax credits are allocated only seven months into the year, since 2000 “unexpended funds” have been realized with the operation of each annual Program. This is due to the fact that not all projects are completed within the allotted time (same calendar year) and therefore do not qualify for tax credits. The Planning, Property and Development Department only allocates enough funds in each annual budget to reflect actual tax credits that are finally issued to citizens. As a result, since 1999, in accordance with the average “Completion Rate” of approximately 65% - 70%, the Department has only allocated approximately 65% – 70% of the $325,000.00 for tax credits in the Department’s annual Budget (refer to attached Appendix "II", Completion Rates, Allocations and Expenses). The result is approximately $95,000 in unexpended funds annually.

The Public Service recommends that Council approve an increase in the annual operating budget to the full amount for the 2008 HRTA program. This would allow for an increase in the 2009 HRTA program by the amount not expended in the 2008 HRTA program, which would allow for the 2009 Program to operate for a longer period of time.

The impact would be to increase the Planning, Property and Development Department’s annual budget for the HRTAP to $325,000.00 from the approximately $230,000.00 previously budgeted.

* INCLUDES THE FOLLOWING PARCEL USE CODES
RESIDENTIAL SINGLE FAMILY DETACHED, RESIDENTIAL SIDE X SIDE, RESIDENTIAL DUPLEX
RESIDENTIAL TRIPLEX, RESIDENTIAL MULTIPLE BUILDINGS, RESIDENTIAL ROW HOUSING
RESIDENTIAL MULTI FAMILY CONVERSION, APARTMENTS
CONDO APARTMENTS, CONDO ROW HOUSING, CONDO SINGLE FAMILY

 CONSTRUCTION AGE LESS THAN 1983 AND ASSESSED VALUE LESS THAN OR EQUAL TO 111, 700

111,700 is the assessment required to include at least 50%, but because there are multiple properties with that value the actual percentage is slightly higher.

 INCLUDES PARCEL USE CODE

RESIDENTIAL SINGLE FAMILY DETACHED

* CONSTRUCTION AGE LESS THAN 1983 AND ASSESSED VALUE LESS THAN OR EQUAL TO 115,600 115,600 is the assessment required to include at least 50%,

but because there are multiple properties with that value
the actual percentage is slightly higher.

NOTE!

Applying the assessed value eligibility that is derived using only RESSD properties to the actual eligibility criteria including condo units and 2 to 4 dwelling units, has the affect of adding approx. 5,700 properties more then the number required to attain the minimum 50% target.

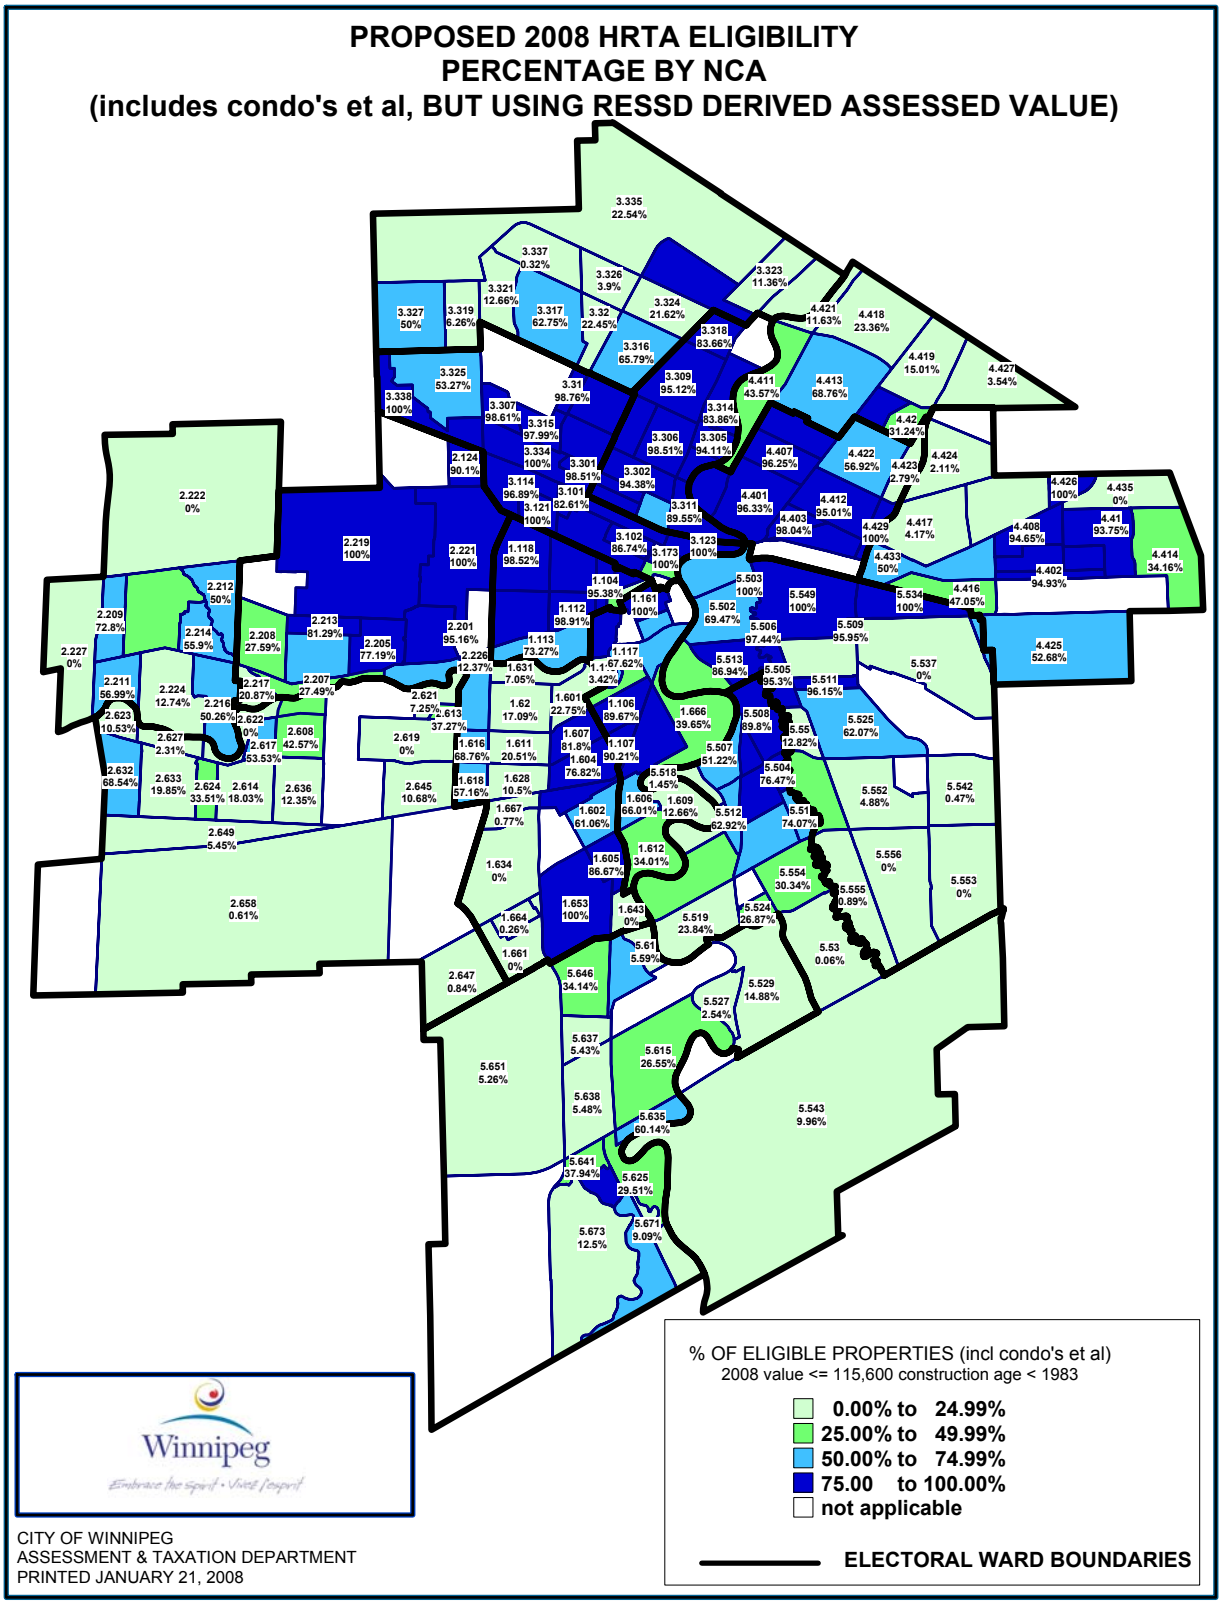

Thus the resulting percentage of eligible properties is actually

It appears this is what happened for 2006 and 2007
