Report Summary

Key Issues:

- On December 19, 2007 Council passed Winnipeg Zoning By-law No. 200/2006 which came into force on March 1, 2008.
- The Development Procedures By-law contains cross-references to certain sections of the Winnipeg Zoning By-law which are now out-of-date with the passage of the new by-law.
- The proposed amendments seek to correct cross-referencing and typographical errors.

Implications of the Recommendation(s):

General Implications

(X) None

( ) For the organization overall and/or for other departments

( ) For the community and/or organizations external to the City

( ) Involves a multi-year contract

Comment(s):

Policy Implications

(X) No

( ) Yes

Comment(s): There are no policy impacts as the proposed amendments serve only to correct errors in existing legislation.

Regulatory Implications

(X) None

( ) Eliminates or reduces regulatory impact

( ) Proposes regulatory impact

Comment(s): There are no regulatory impacts as the amending by-law proposes only to correct errors and omissions in the Development Procedures By-law.

Comment(s): As the proposed amendments only recommend changes to the text of a by-law, there is no financial impact associated with the changes.

Report

REASON FOR THE REPORT:
The Standing Policy Committee on Property and Development is responsible for overseeing the Development Procedures By-law.

HISTORY:
On December 19, 2007 Council passed Winnipeg Zoning By-law No. 200/2006, which came into force on March 1, 2008. The Development Procedures By-law contains references to certain sections of the Zoning By-law which are now out-of-date with the passing of a new Zoning By-law.

DISCUSSION:
The Public Service is proposing amendments to correct several minor errors and omissions in the Development Procedures By-law to complement the introduction of the new Winnipeg Zoning By-law. The proposed amendments can be grouped into 2 categories:

1. Incorrect cross-references – errors in cross-referencing sections and zoning district names.

2. Typographical errors – words spelled incorrectly and grammatical errors.

The proposed amendments are outlined in a draft amending by-law in Attachment "A".

Financial Impact Statement Date: July 28, 2008

Project Name:

Correction of Errors and Omissions in Development Procedures By-law No. 5893/92

COMMENTS:

The recommendation included in this report is that the Development Procedures By-law No. 5893/92 be amended to correct errors and omissions as outlined in Attachment "A". There are no financial implications associated with this recommendation.
