RECOMMENDATIONS

That Council approves the negotiated agreement to continue allowing the University of Manitoba Campus Patrol Services Special Constables to provide specified policing duties on properties under the control of, or affiliated with, the University of Manitoba.

IMPLICATIONS OF THE RECOMMENDATIONS

The delegation of specified low-priority policing duties to the University of Manitoba Campus Patrol Services Special Constables allows Winnipeg Police Service Officers to respond to higher priority calls for service.

HISTORY

For many decades, the University of Manitoba (U of M) Campus Patrol Services members have held appointments as Special Constables under the Provincial Police Act (Manitoba). More recently, the members have also held City appointments as Special Constables in order for them to enforce specific sections of some City of Winnipeg By-Laws.

There has been an historic relationship of mutually supportive, effective and efficient co-operation in policing matters between the City of Winnipeg Police Service and the U of M Campus Patrol Services.

The City of Winnipeg and the U of M entered into the original Agreement on November 21, 2001 allowing the U of M Campus Patrol Services to enforce the following laws on properties under the control of, or affiliated with, the U of M:

- The Intoxicated Persons Detention Act.
- The Petty Trespass Act.
- Specified sections of:
    - The Criminal Code (only: theft under $5,000, mischief - summary conviction and fraud under $5,000).
    - The Highway Traffic Act.
    - The Liquor Control Act.
    - The Neighbourhood Liveability By-Law.
    - The Traffic By-Law.

The U of M Campus Patrol Service members will immediately contact the Winnipeg Police Service for all major crimes, suicide attempts or deaths, serious motor vehicle collisions, fires, bomb threats and all City By-Laws/Provincial offences not covered above.
