REASON FOR THE REPORT

Council approval is required to enter into the MOU with the RCMP.

EXECUTIVE SUMMARY

The purpose of this MOU is to outline the roles and responsibilities of the participants in MIHROU and formalize the working relationship that members of the Unit have with the RCMP.

There is no addition to complement as these are current members assigned to MIHROU and included in future budget submissions.

IMPLICATIONS OF THE RECOMMENDATIONS

The MOU sets forth the terms and conditions to establish the Manitoba Integrated High Risk Offender Unit ("MIHROU") for the purpose of identifying, monitoring and investigating high risk offenders in accordance with applicable Federal and Provincial legislation. Upon execution of the MOU, the arrangement will remain in effect for five (5) years.

HISTORY

The MOU proposed in this Report sets forth the roles and responsibilities of the participants with respect to the identification, monitoring and investigation of high risk offenders within the City of Winnipeg and the Province of Manitoba, as well as to administer and enforce the National Sex Offender Registry for the Province of Manitoba. Members of MIHROU may be required to investigate high risk offenders who may not have a sexual history.

The RCMP is authorized to enter into this MOU by virtue of Section 18 of the Royal Canadian Mounted Police Act. The Winnipeg Police Service is authorized to enter into this MOU by virtue of the City of Winnipeg Charter Act.

Members of the Winnipeg Police Service assigned to MIHROU will be appointed as Supernumerary Special Constables of the RCMP pursuant to Section 7(1)(c) of the Act in order to ensure all officers have full unrestricted powers as a “peace officer”. These appointments will be considered on a case by case basis and will remain at the discretion of the Commanding Officer “D” Division, with whom the vested authority to make such appointments rests.

During the course of this arrangement, all salaries, benefits and other forms of remuneration of every person appointed to the MIHROU will be paid by the respective employers of the employees. Throughout the appointment, members appointed to MIHROU will continue employment with their respective employers and will not be considered employees of the other participating agency.

The respective Police Services understand the responsibility for indemnification of their own employees remains with each participating agency. Disciplinary action against members of the MIHROU will be the responsibility of the respective Police Service to which the members belong. This arrangement will commence upon execution by the participants with the MOU in effect for a period of five (5) years. Termination may occur by either participant upon one hundred and twenty (120) days written notice.
