MESSAGE FROM CEC CHAIR
COUNCILLOR CINDY GILROY

"I look forward to working with the Committee to continue celebrating our diversity in Winnipeg."

IT has been an honour to serve as the Chair of the Citizen Equity Committee (CEC) over the past year. I look forward to working with the Committee to continue celebrating our diversity in Winnipeg and advocate change on equity and diversity issues.

I am happy to see the CEC evolve and grow since its inception fourteen years ago. Some things have changed this past year within the committee but the unwavering support and interest from the community remains strong.

The citizen members that comprise this committee are valued assets in bringing forward issues, collecting information and providing input into equity and diversity topics that affect all Winnipeggers'.

In 2015, the CEC continued committee's long standing determination to achieve its mandate which among others, include advocacy and the promotion of equity and diversity. Committee members attended and supported various ethno-cultural communities to celebrate our diversity and learn about special cultural events.

The annual Youth Role Model Awards is the CEC's premiere event that showcases the vast talent of our youth from all communities. The 2014 event was held at the Victoria Inn and the 2015 event was hosted at the RBC Convention Centre. Each year, 16 youth were honoured for their achievements in eight different categories.

MESSAGE FROM THE COORDINATOR
MARIA MORRISON

April 20, 2015 was my first day working for the Citizen Equity Committee. I was thrown into the planning of the Youth Role Model Awards on my first day and the enthusiasm and dedication of this committee hasn't let up.

Over the course of the past eight months, I have attended over 25 community events, connected with over 75 communities organizations, hosted 6 monthly meetings, completed a brand new version of Winnipeg's Know Your Neighbours Guide book, oversaw the submission of the ONE Summit report to the Mayor's office and starting forging relationships with key City staff.

Connecting and networking with people and organizations has been enhanced by taking CEC's message online with the development of a Facebook page and new website location.

A lot of ground work has already been completed by the CEC over the past fourteen years to promote and advocate for equity and raise awareness against racism and discrimination. I count it as a privilege to step into this role, continue the work that was started before me and fulfill the tasks assigned to me by our Chair and the citizens on this committee.

Thank you and miigwech.

"Listening to each other with respect will begin many exciting conversations that lead to understanding and partnerships."

I wanted to reorganize the third edition of this guide book to, first, recognize the Indigenous people that have always been here - that we are on Treaty 1 territory and the homeland of the Métis. Next, this book attempts to reflect the diversity found in Winnipeg that goes beyond the flags of people's country of origin. It is about all Winnipegers here today - the people, relationships, building knowledge and connections.

I spent a lot of time researching and connecting with many ethnic communities here in Winnipeg and in the end, we are happy to include details on 54 unique cultures.

CMARD

COALITION OF MUNICIPALITIES AGAINST RACISM AND DISCRIMINATION

Mission Statement

"Winnipeg CMARD will form Partnerships to Build Awareness and Knowledge to Achieve an Inclusive and Respectful Winnipeg"

Winnipeg CMARD is a sub-committee of the Citizen Equity Committee (CEC) of the City of Winnipeg that is committed to empowering the community of Winnipeg to eliminate racism and discrimination by promoting human rights through shared responsibility across all levels of government, businesses, agencies and individual citizens in order to build respectful, inclusive and safe communities.

In 2015, the CMARD sub-committee has been reinvigorated to once again become an active and supportive group. One of the main activities undertaken this year was to create a report on the findings from the One: The Mayor's National Summit on Racial Inclusion, September 17, 17, 2015.

CMARD has also connected with community groups like the Our Summit group, spearheaded by Aboriginal Youth Opportunities. This group created the 13 Fires Conversation Series that is a group of concerned community members who want to address racism and continue conversations on race and increase awareness. CEC and CMARD have sponsored the December gathering at Thunderbird House and look forward to collaborating on other events.
