HISTORY

Snowflake Place for Children and Youth Inc. (formerly known as the Winnipeg Children's Advocacy Centre) was incorporated by the Member agencies on October 26, 2012. The object is to promote the well-being of children and families through a coordinated response to child maltreatment, and to support the work of organizations involved in child abuse investigations.

Snowflake Place for Children and Youth Inc. was established in recognition that child abuse is a community problem and that no single agency or discipline has all the necessary knowledge, skills or resources to provide all the intervention services required and deserved by abused children and their non-offending caregivers. Each Member agency or entity has specific legal duties and responsibilities regarding the investigation, assessment, medical/mental health treatment, and prosecution of child sexual and serious physical abuse cases. The Centre was established as the primary site for collaboratively carrying out joint efforts in Winnipeg child abuse investigations.

The purpose of the Letter of Agreement is to clearly identify the roles and responsibilities of the Members in fulfilling the Objects of the Centre and maintaining the Centre's facility. Each Member, one of which being the Winnipeg Police Service, pledges its continuing cooperation and has identified specific organizational actions it will undertake or participate in to further the Objects of the Centre, as detailed in the Letter of Agreement.

The Letter of Agreement comes into effect upon being signed by all of the Members and will remain in effect. Any member may terminate their involvement by providing a written resignation in accordance with the Articles of Incorporation.

There are no costs associated with the initiative.
