Labour Initiative

River Heights Lawn Bowling Club is willing to supply labour for small projects, (within safety guide lines) and those which will enhance appearance of building and grounds.

Labour was supplied for the following in year 2003.

1. Removal of shutters for opening of building
2. Cutting of lawn (NOT GREENS) in spring to help greens keeper until temporary labour pool was hired.

3. Watering of greens throughout the year when required, also if long periods of watering was required after hours RHLBC would shut down system and put equipment away for Green's Keeper

4. Flowers and small shrubs were maintained to enhanced appearance of club (rotor tilling was done by RHLBC

5. Mr Zanowich was contacted on Park bench sanding and painting, RHLBC volunteers labour if material was supplied. Last year (2002) Parks Branch supplied labour and materials

Over all River Heights is showing initiative to enhance the appearance of Grounds and Buildings, and make the area attractive for gain new Membership

Thank you for time in this matter

Sincerely yours

Mr Rick Strauss

Vice President RHLBC
