HISTORY/DISCUSSION

Council approved the Panet Road/Molson Street Reconstruction and Twinning Project as part of the 2013 Capital Budget.

The "Proposed Acquisition" shown on Misc. Plan No. 10849/7 identifies a portion of the land required for this project.

The "Subject City Property" shown on Misc. Plan 10849/7 was acquired by the City in 2015 in part to acquire the most westerly 2.325 m of land required for the widening of Panet Road under the authority delegated to the Manager of Real Estate to approve land acquisitions of Council-approved programs where the price payable to the vendor is $100,000.00 or less, plus ancillary costs.

The remaining lands not required for the Panet Road widening (the "Subject City Property" shown on Misc. Plan 10849/7) were to be exchanged for the land shown as "Proposed Acquisition" on Misc. Plan No. 10849/7 (attached as Schedule "B").

The City property shown as "Subject City Property" on Misc. Plan No. 10849/7 was circulated to all City Departments and no Civic need was identified.

The Department intends to exchange the City land, shown as "Subject City Property" for the land shown as "Proposed Acquisition" on Misc. Plan No. 10849/7 with the adjoining owner, '101087717 Saskatchewan Ltd. and 101237911 Saskatchewan Ltd.', for consolidation with its current holding, for $1.00 plus ancillary costs.

The Ward Councilor was consulted and concurs with the intentions of the Department.

The Public Works Department supports the land exchange as negotiated and has advised that adequate funding for this proposed land exchange is available in the Panet Road / Molson

Street Twinning from Munroe Avenue to Grassie Boulevard Program, Account # 003-181000-180603-1803000113-Property.

No environmental issues are anticipated. However, as a precaution, the City's proposed transaction will contain terms that protect the City's interest regarding environmental matters.

The Department is seeking approval of the land exchange with 101087717 Saskatchewan Ltd. and 101237911 Saskatchewan Ltd. (owner of 811 Panet Road) as per the attached Schedule "A".
