EXECUTIVE SUMMARY

Sir Hugh John MacDonald Memorial Hostel runs several programs wherein they arrange for at risk youth to complete volunteer work at local organizations in the community. This programming helps participants develop work skills as they become adults and to remain on a positive path. This report is to formalize an agreement with MacDonald Youth Services (MYS) to have participants volunteer at Animal Services under the supervision of MYS employees.

Animal Services has a progressive volunteer program. Volunteers are typically involved with socializing and walking dogs as well as completing light facility cleaning. These volunteers also learn about Responsible Pet Ownership and pet care. Volunteerism at Animal Services provides a positive experience for the community, especially at-risk youth.

HISTORY

Established in 1929, MYS provides placement (foster and group care), community support services and transition services (youth transitioning to adulthood) to children, youth, adults and families in Winnipeg and surrounding communities, Thompson and The Pas. MYS runs several programs wherein they arrange for at-risk youth to volunteer at local organizations in order to help these youth develop work skills as they become adults and to remain on a positive path.

Animal Services has had a volunteer program for 17 years.

Participants from MYS have been informally volunteering at Animal Services for approximately two years.

Animal Services has developed a formal legal agreement with the assistance of the Legal Services Department which addresses liability issues, insurance requirements, and outlines other rules and obligations which MYS must follow.
