2. The use is being updated will likely have less of an impact on the neighbouring community.

7. That the Director of Legal Services and City Solicitor be requested to do all things necessary for implementation in accordance with the terms of The City of Winnipeg Charter.

REASON FOR THE REPORT

- The applicant is proposing to rezone from the R2 – Residential Two-Family zoning district to C1 – Commercial Neighbourhood zoning district to permit the establishment of office type use on the subject property.

IMPLICATIONS OF THE RECOMMENDATIONS

- If the recommendations of the Planning and Land Use Division are concurred in, the land will be rezoned from an R2 district to C1 district, which will permit local-scaled commercial development on the site.

HISTORY

DAZ 209/2010 & DAV 10-117903D

- In 2010, the applicant was approved under DAZ 209/2010 to rezone the land from R2 to C1 with the same associated variances that the applicant is seeking under this variance application.
- The applicant is required to resubmit for both the rezoning and the variances because the previous rezoning application lapsed and did not come into force and effect, which was a condition of approval of the previous variance application (DAV 10-117903/D).

DAV 10-111154/C

- On April 9, 2010 the Board of Adjustment granted Variance Order DAV 10-111154/C to vary the “R2” District use regulations and dimensional standards of the Winnipeg Zoning By-Law No. 200/2006 that allowed for a change of use for a period not to exceed five (5) years to permit the establishment of an office use, and for the establishment of an office use to permit no additional parking instead of four (4) additional spaces. This variance allowed the applicants to move from their main floor residence within the two-and-a-half storey building and lease the main floor to the Federation des Associations de Juristes d’Expression Francaise de Common Law Inc. (FAJEF). Conditions of variance DAV 10-111154/C required that the variance be established in three (3) months and that the variance will terminate two (2) years from the date that the variance order was granted.

DCU 08-147249/C & DAV 08-147251/C

- On November 5, 2008, the Board of Adjustment granted a conditional use order (DCU 08-147249/C) to permit the establishment of a Library (Resource Centre) use on the subject property. This conditional use has allowed the Federation Provinciale des Comites de

Parents (FPCP) to operate their library, which provides French language books, DVD's and games to the community. The resource component known as Centre de Resource Educatives a l'enfance (CREE), functions as a French community recreation centre offering a facility where parents and children can play and read within a French Cultural Heritage atmosphere. The library/resource operation has approximately 7 staff members on site. Typically users arrive in small groups during the hours of operation between 8:30 am and 4:30 pm Monday to Friday.

- In conjunction with the conditional use order granted on November 5, 2008, the Board of Adjustment also granted associated variances (DAV 08-147251/C) for the Library (Resource Centre) that permitted no additional parking spaces, and the maintenance of an accessory parking area that allowed parking spaces with a length of 15.8 feet (4.82 metres) and parking spaces in the front yard.
- The application for the parking variances included a letter of authorization from the owner of 275 Taché Avenue allowing the library/resource centre the use of 6 parking stalls.

Non-conforming approach (2007)

- In September 2007, the subject property was approved for a non-conforming front approach by the Riel Community Committee.

SITE DESCRIPTION

- The subject property is located on the northwest corner of Eugénie Street and Kenny Street in the Norwood East neighbourhood of the St. Boniface Ward.
- The property is zoned “R2” Residential Two-Family and is approximately 9,562 square feet in area.
- The main floor of the building is 3,285 square feet in area.

- Adjacent properties include a mix of single-family residences and multi-family units.

DESCRIPTION OF THE PROPOSED DEVELOPMENT

- The intent of the applicant is to rezone the property from R2 to C1 for office type uses. One of the office spaces will function as a library for parents on educating their children with an occupancy of 10 persons for the lower level (approximately 5,700 square feet). The second office, located on the main floor (approximately 3,800 square feet), will be for a consulting firm for special needs people with an occupancy of 7 person.

ANALYSIS AND ISSUES

COMPLETE COMMUNITIES DIRECTION STRATEGY

- Under the Complete Communities Direction Strategy the proposed development is located in the Areas of Stability – Mature Communities. Key relevant policies guiding commercial development within Areas of Stability include the following:
    - Support a mix of commercial services and employment uses that serve the local community (p.80)

LAND USE BY-LAW

Zoning

- The building on the subject property contains a library (resource centre), which was established as a conditional use, and now contains an office, which was permitted as a temporary use not to exceed a period of two years. Under Zoning By-Law 200/2006, offices are not a permitted use in the R2 zone. Both offices and libraries are permitted in the C1 zone.

Variances

- The existing building has a 1 foot separation distance or setback from the western (side) property, which is zoned R2. Under Zoning By-Law 200/2006 developments in commercial zones require a 10 foot side and/or rear yard when commercially-zoned properties abut the side or rear lot line of an R1 or R2 zoning district.
- Under Zoning By-Law 200/2006 the library and office would require a total of 8 on-site parking stalls. There are currently 3 parking stalls on the site. The applicant is not proposing to develop additional parking stalls.

COMPATIBILITY WITH THE SURROUNDING NEIGHBOURHOOD

- The subject property is located on a corner.
- The surrounding neighbourhood is comprised of a mix of housing types with commercial properties along established commercial streets such as Marion and Goulet Street.
- The predominant land use along Eugénie Street between Taché Avenue and Kenny Street is residential. However, there are commercially-zoned properties on the corner of Taché Avenue and Eugénie Street that face Taché Avenue. These commercial properties form part of a longer, consistent stretch of commercial development along Taché Avenue that begin at Goulet Street and end at Enfield Crescent and St. Mary's Road.
- There are no commercially-zoned properties that front onto Eugénie Street between Enfield Crescent and St. Mary's Road.

- Besides Marion and Goulet Street (the established commercial streets in the area), there are two commercial properties along Kenny Street between Dollard Boulevard and St. Mary's Road. These two properties are located on the corner of St. Mary's Road and Kenny Street.
- In the greater area, there are a number of properties zoned C1 that do not help form a longer consistent stretch of commercially-zoned properties. The most notable example is located at the northwest and southwest corner of the Dubuc Street and Rue Des Meurons where there is a small cluster of properties zoned C1 that are surrounded by properties zoned R1 or R2. Another example closer to the subject property is located at the southeast corner of Taché Avenue and Kitson Street where there are two properties zoned C1. These properties front onto Kitson Street and are predominantly surrounded by properties zoned R2.
- Over the past number of years, the subject property has functioned as a dance hall and/or private club, which may be seen as more disruptive uses to the neighbourhood than the office and the existing library.
- The C1 zone is intended to allow for commercial development that is compatible with residentially-zoned properties. As such, this zone is the most restrictive commercial zoning category in terms of the uses and the form of development permitted. However, there are some uses permitted in the C1 district that should either be conditional or not permitted on this particular site due to the predominantly residential character of the immediate surrounding area. These uses are:

  Conditional

  - Neighbourhood rehabilitation homes (these are conditional uses in most residential zones)
  - Kennels
  - Restaurants

  Not Permitted

  - Contractor's establishments

PARKING & ACCESS

- The subject property is near major transit routes and there is available on-street parking on Eugénie Street and Kenny Street. These factors should help alleviate and accommodate the minor parking demands anticipated for both the office and library uses and the majority of developments that could develop on this site under the C1 designation. Further, the applicant has an existing agreement with the owner of 275 Taché Avenue allowing the library/resource centre the use of 6 parking stalls at 275 Taché Avenue.

SITE DESIGN

- The applicant is not proposing changes to the existing building.
- The Planning and Land Use Division is recommending conditions within the zoning agreement that will control signage and form of development to help ensure that future development on the site is suitable for the neighbourhood.

RECOMMENDATION

The Planning and Land Use Division recommends approval for the following reasons:

- The subject property has previously functioned as a dance hall and/or private club in the neighbourhood for many years prior to this application. Both of these uses can be seen as more disruptive than the current uses (library and office) and potential future uses that would be permitted on the site under the C1 designation.
- The subject property is near major transit routes and there is available on-street parking on Eugénie Street and Kenny Street. These factors should help alleviate and accommodate the minor parking demands anticipated for both the office and library uses and the majority of developments that could develop on this site under the C1 designation. Further, the tenant has an existing agreement with the owner of 275 Taché Avenue allowing the library/resource centre the use of 6 parking stalls at 275 Taché Avenue.
- Restricting signage, uses and the form of future development through the zoning agreement helps to ensure that development on the site will be compatible with neighbouring properties.
