Minutes – Executive Policy Committee – December 11, 2020

DELEGATIONS

The following persons were heard with respect to the Preliminary 2021 Operating and Capital Budget Review:

1. Councillor Nason, Transcona Ward, heard in support of the Joint Venture budget referral

2. Chris Lorenc, President, Manitoba Heavy Construction Association, was heard in support of the infrastructure budget, and submitted supporting documentation

3. Morley Walker and Laila Yesmin, Winnipeg Public Library Board, were heard in support of their 2021 Operating Grant application and the Library Services budget

4. Derek Koop, President, Functional Transit Winnipeg, was heard with respect to transit funding, and submitted supporting documentation

5. Michel Durand-Wood was heard with respect to the City's net financial position and submitted supporting documentation

6. Dodie Jordaan and Mary Jane Brownscombe, Ka Ni Kanichihk, were heard with respect to increased funding to support the Ka Ni Kanichihk building expansion project

7. John Samson Fellows was heard in opposition to funding levels for the Arts and the Winnipeg Police Service budget

8. Don Woodstock was heard in opposition of the Preliminary 2021 Operating and Capital Budget

9. Andrew Kohan was heard in opposition to climate change funding, transit cuts and the Winnipeg Police Service budget

10. Mel Marginet, Green Action Centre, was heard in opposition to funding levels for climate and environmental matters, transit and active transportation

11. Romeo Ignacio, President, Amalgamated Transit Union, was heard in opposition to funding levels for Transit

12. James Van Gerwen, Executive Vice President, Amalgamated Transit Union, was heard in opposition to funding levels for transit, transit user satisfaction levels, 2021 ridership projections and reduction of front-line workers and services

DELEGATIONS (continued)

13. Jonathan Alward, Director, Prairie Region, Canadian Federation of Independent Business, was heard with respect to the business tax and funding levels for small-medium business grants, and submitted supporting documentation

14. Anders Swanson, Executive Director, Winnipeg Trails Association, was heard in opposition to the funding levels for transportation related to roads and trails, and submitted supporting documentation

15. Jelynn Dela Cruz, University of Manitoba Students Union President, was heard in opposition to funding levels and services for transit

16. Brendan Scott, University of Manitoba Students Union Vice-President Finance and Operations, was heard in opposition to funding levels and services for transit

17. Taylor Sayer was heard in opposition to funding levels and services for Transit, community safety reporting and the Winnipeg Police Service budget

18. Kayla Lawson was heard in opposition to the funding levels for the Winnipeg Police Service budget

19. David Driedger was heard in opposition to the funding levels for the Winnipeg Police Service budget, underpaid workers, transit, active transportation, affordable housing, and submitted supporting documentation

20. Kate Kehler and Kathleen Vyrauen, Police Accountability Coalition, were heard in opposition to funding levels for the Winnipeg Police Service budget and community building initiatives, and submitted supporting documentation

21. Wendy Boyd was heard with respect to the transit master plan, low-income bus pass and transit funding levels

22. Omar Kinnarath, Mutual Aid Society Winnipeg, was heard in opposition to funding levels for the Winnipeg Police Service budget and transit

23. Dudley Thompson, Chair Advocacy Committee, Sustainable Buildings Manitoba, was heard with respect to the Winnipeg Climate Action Plan and the establishment of a Community Advisory Committee

DELEGATIONS (continued)

24. Anna Weier was heard in opposition to the funding levels for the Winnipeg Police Service budget, transit, active transportation and community services

25. Daniel Friesen was heard in opposition to funding levels for the Winnipeg Police Service budget, road infrastructure, transit, active transportation, arts, community services, and submitted supporting documentation

26. Michael Champagne, Fearless R2W organization, was heard with respect to community and recreational services, low-income bus pass, open data portal, and funding levels for transit, homelessness and the Winnipeg Police Service

27. Marika Prokosh was heard in opposition to funding levels for the Winnipeg Police Service budget and road infrastructure

28. Heather Ashdown was heard in opposition to funding levels for the Winnipeg Police Service budget

29. Glen Koroluk, Manitoba Eco-Network, was heard with respect to the Winnipeg Climate Action Plan and the establishment of a Community Advisory Committee

30. Cerah Dube was heard in opposition to funding levels for the Winnipeg Police Service budget

31. James Wilt, Winnipeg Police Cause Harm, was heard in opposition to funding levels for the Winnipeg Police Service budget, transit and climate change

32. Michelle Moulson was heard in opposition to funding levels for transit and the Winnipeg Police Service budget

33. Jazmín Alfaro was heard in opposition to funding levels for community services, homelessness and the Winnipeg Police Services budget

34. Robyn Dyck was heard in opposition to funding levels for community safety

35. Chantale Garand was heard in opposition to the Preliminary 2021 Operating and Capital Budget

DELEGATIONS (continued)

36. Brian Pincott was heard in opposition to funding levels for road infrastructure, the Winnipeg Police Services budget and community services

37. Rebecca Hume was heard in opposition to funding levels for the Winnipeg Police Service budget, transit and community services

38. Raina Ignacio was heard in opposition to funding levels for transit (U-Pass program)

39. Joe Curnow was heard in opposition to funding levels for the Winnipeg Police Service budget

40. Sylvie Hebert was heard in opposition to funding levels for transit, active transportation, solid waste, green spaces and community grants

41. Nicole Jowett was heard in opposition to the funding levels for road infrastructure and the Winnipeg Police Service budget

42. Anny Chen, Budget for All, was heard in opposition to funding levels for transit services, snow and ice sidewalk removal, community services, the Winnipeg Police Service budget and in support of the Poverty Reduction Strategy

43. Geoff Reimer was heard in opposition to funding levels for the Winnipeg Police Service budget