Subject: Communication regarding Item 4 of EPC tomorrow.

Good Afternoon City Clerks,

I would like to share my opinion on the proposed plebiscite on residential speed limits.

I don't believe something like safety should be decided by the desires of public opinion. An ordinary citizen (myself included) is not sufficiently knowledgeable to decide what an appropriate speed limit on residential streets is.

We should make these sorts of decisions based on best scientific data, like the World Health Organisation or TAC-ATC.

Regards,
Steve Snyder
