EXECUTIVE SUMMARY

Council, at its meeting of April 26, 2018, approved an application made by Cloverdale Paint Inc., to close Turenne Street between Panet Road and Dugald Road. Negotiations for the purchase and sale of the street were not completed and the approval expired.

Cloverdale Paint Inc. has now applied to close and purchase that portion of Turenne Street west of Panet Road shown on Miscellaneous Plan No. 13662/7 adjoining its properties at 50 and 70 Panet Road, to accommodate the construction of a removable breezeway for employee passage between the properties. Cloverdale Paint Inc. has been leasing the subject area since June 1987.

The Public Service recommends approval of the proposed closing. Before the street may be sold, it must be legally closed.

IMPLICATIONS OF THE RECOMMENDATIONS

All costs associated with the proposed closing are the responsibility of the Purchaser or assignee. There are no financial implications for the City of Winnipeg.

HISTORY/DISCUSSION

Council, at its meeting of April 26, 2018, approved an application made by Cloverdale Paint Inc. to close Turenne Street between Panet Road and Dugald Road. Negotiations for the purchase and sale of the street were not completed and the approval expired.

Cloverdale Paint Inc. has now applied to close and purchase that portion of Turenne Street west of Panet Road shown on Miscellaneous Plan No. 13662/7 adjoining its properties at 50 and 70 Panet Road, to accommodate the construction of a removable breezeway for employee passage between the properties. Cloverdale Paint Inc. has been leasing the subject area since June 1987.

Manitoba Hydro is using the westerly portion of the street adjoining its property for equipment storage purposes. Manitoba Hydro has indicated interest in purchasing the balance of Turenne Street which will require submission of a separate and independent closing application.

Turenne Street was originally opened as Leslie Street by Plan No. 5038 registered in the Winnipeg Land Titles Office on March 2, 1950. It was renamed to Turenne Street by By-law No. 557 passed by the Metropolitan Corporation of Greater Winnipeg on February 13, 1964.

The street is unimproved and appears to serve no public transportation purpose.
