STANDING COMMITTEE RECOMMENDATION:

On March 12, 2021, the Standing Policy Committee on Finance passed the following motion:

WHEREAS in an effort to assist restaurants that have been financially impacted by COVID-19 health restrictions the City of Winnipeg waived the patio fee in 2020;

AND WHEREAS the 2021 City of Winnipeg adopted budget includes measures to assist businesses, including restaurants, dealing with the financial impacts of COVID-19, including an Economic Support Grant Program, waiving penalties on 2021 property and business taxes that remain unpaid for up to three months and an increase to the business tax threshold;

AND WHEREAS the City of Winnipeg is offering an expedited process to allow for restaurants and licensed manufacturers with tasting rooms to establish temporary patio spaces;

AND WHEREAS the city is currently collecting a reduced fee of $500.00 for the registration of Temporary Summer Patios;

AND WHEREAS restaurants are still experiencing negative financial impacts of COVID-19 health restrictions and the City of Winnipeg can assist restaurants by waiving the fee for Temporary Summer Patios for the 2021 summer season;

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED that the Standing Policy Committee on Finance recommend that Council waive the current $500.00 processing fee to register Temporary Summer Patios for 2021 and direct the Public Service to issue refunds to any establishments that have already paid this fee for the 2021 summer season.
