Comments in writing: I still have the soft cover book that the city gave me 30 years ago. It was filled with answers to nearly every question we had about city hall. It also contained contact info for every employee who had the answers to our other questions. Item 13 fails to lay out a path toward the level of open gov we had decades ago.
I am a strong believer in decorum, so I am not able to express the feelings of those who still wish for open gov.
Open is good. Winnipeg is not there yet.
