Comments in writing: The fact that #23 is on your Agenda is sad testimony to disfunction. I have hope that this new Council will be more responsive that were past Councils.
Concerned citizens often raise important matters. Too often, no perceptible actions results. On the other hand, when media turn the problem into a story, city either acts, or pretends to act. Some of us suspect that #23 is a step in sweeping this age-old problem under the proverbial rug. Have those responsible for this traffic lights problem, and the timing bungles that cost residents millions, ever been identified? Has there ever been a consequence for those city staffers? Too bad those media folks, who told the tale in past years, are silent on the 'non-response' from city hall.
