My comments are on behalf of Short-Term Rentals (STR). I have used STRs many times while on vacation and found them a much more pleasant experience than staying in a hotel. I have also used them in Winnipeg to accommodate out-of-town family and family who needed a more private living space following medical treatments. Also, I believe that small business is the backbone of economic sustainability in our city. It should be supported, not hindered.