Dear City Council,

I am writing this letter to support the short term renters in the City of Winnipeg.
My name is Bertrand Pauget and I arrived last summer from Europe. I work as a Dean of Education at St. Boniface University.

The arrival in Canada was complicated because of the pandemic situation. Even though I was double vaccinated, there were restrictions for me and my family. When you have a child, staying in a hotel is not recommended for full development. The rooms are too small and there is no space for everyone.

In this case, the Airbnb we stayed in allowed us to get comfortable before getting more permanent housing. I would not have been able to work and live well in Manitoba if I had not had this solution.
I understand that you were thinking about what to do with this type of accommodation. I wanted to express how usefull it was for people like me.

Sincerely,

Bertrand Pauget
