Comments in writing: There are many problems with this "treaty". Since it is not a treaty between opposing parties, can it even be called a treaty?

If adopted, this will cost jobs for the people of Winnipeg. No new meat or fish packing plants, or improvements at the busy businesses we now have.

This document is sprinkled with virtue signals, most not related to plant based foods. Like votes to keep nuclear weapons out of the city, this calls for Council to veer out of its lane, to make a few people feel better. Winnipeg does not need either.
