Comments in writing: Those who are new to this topic might expect to read about how CV has been spending city taxpayer money and helping build new infrastructure. Instead there is a record of the significant assets handed to CV. Missing seems to be an explanation of how CV has improved Winnipeg. After reading this report, it is easy to understand why the previous mayor was so concerned, almost 9 years ago, with the operation of CV. I strongly agreed with him then, even though media and CV did not. This report should concern all of you for the same reasons.
