Comments in writing: I like the idea of a reminder placard on each bus, pointing out that MB is helping to fund the system. For many years, I noticed that each TTC and GoTrain vehicle made an analogous boast on funding by the gov of Ontario.

Block funding makes the city more responsible for losses and bad decisions that affect the bottom line. 50-50 reduces the city's cost. Rich contract for vehicles or unions staff? Free rides for most of Winnipeg? Run nearly empty bendy buses hours after everyone has gone home? None of these would cost the city budget as much, if we have an open ended 50-50 deal..
