Comments in writing: If you don't think about it long, giving more of someone else's money to low paid workers seems good.
I remind you that interfering with small businesses can have dire and unexpected consequences. We see in the news recently that federal plans to make daycare more affordable are putting providers out of business, making things disastrous for parents. For companies that depend on city contracts, and which must compete with low-wage competitors, expect disaster. Changing Manitoba's minimum wage can harm some businesses; this plan is far worse. Ask the Premier for an increase, if you want, but please do not approve this plan.
