Comments in writing: Rights There have been many examples of the city violating the rights of residents and employees in the past several years.
Once again we have a lengthy report, full of glowing, articulate wording, but without a single reference to any of these violations. Why is the HRC report silent on actual complaints to the Manitoba Rights Commission, that involve City Hall? Once again, you will have a gallery staffed with professional journalists, and yet they will again be silent on this topic.
