Comments in writing: Winnipeg is 150 years old. There are a variety of ways to celebrate birthdays. Kids like balloons and cake. Older folks get together to share stories of their long lives.
Personally, I like the idea of celebrating in our neighborhoods. Gathering at Portage Place, or at city hall or at the Forks are becoming far less attractive than they once were.
I believe that more time should be spent teaching everyone about life in 1874 and 1924, than the balloons and cake stuff.
