EXECUTIVE SUMMARY

Public Safety Canada (PSC) has engaged the Winnipeg Police Service (WPS) in discussions regarding the Government of Canada's national initiative aimed at enhancing public safety by removing prohibited firearms from circulation in Canadian communities.

The Assault-Style Firearms Compensation Program (ASFCP) will provide financial support to the City of Winnipeg to cover all costs incurred by the Winnipeg Police Service in collecting and transporting assault-style firearms (ASFs) from licensed individual owners participating in the ASFCP, providing temporary storage of ASFs, and associated administration relating to the project.

The estimated costs for the WPS's participation in the ASFCP are $3,490,199. The City is required to enter into a contribution agreement in order to receive these funds.

2. REASON FOR THE REPORT

Council approval is required to approve funding and enter into the contribution agreement with the Government of Canada.

IMPLICATIONS OF THE RECOMMENDATIONS

The recommendation set out in this report will allow the City to enter into a contribution agreement with Canada and receive funds to cover all Winnipeg Police Service costs associated with the administration, collection, transport, and storage of assault-style firearms from licensed individual owners in the City of Winnipeg who are voluntarily participating in Canada's Assault-Style Firearms Compensation Program.

HISTORY/DISCUSSION

On May 1, 2020, the Government of Canada (Canada) banned 1,500 assault-style firearms (ASFs) and variants as part of its comprehensive strategy to tackle gun violence in Canada. With additional ASFs added since then, more than 2,000 makes and models are now banned. An amnesty order protects licensed firearms businesses and owners from criminal liability until October 30, 2025.

Canada advises that the Assault-Style Firearms Compensation Program (ASFCP) complements the prohibition of assault-style firearms and supports the Government's mandate and commitment to safely and securely remove these firearms from Canadian communities.

The ASFCP provides compensation to businesses and individual owners affected by the prohibition. It also provides funding to police services to facilitate the collection and disposal of assault-style firearms (ASFs) from eligible firearm owners in their jurisdiction.

Canada will cover all costs associated with the Winnipeg Police Service's (WPS) participation in the ASFCP, including:

- planning, coordination and administration of a project to securely remove ASFs from individual owners; and
- collection, verification, transportation and storage of ASFs.

Disposal of the prohibited firearms will be performed by a third party designated by the federal government.

Based on previous municipal and provincial firearms amnesties, the WPS has developed a project plan to collect ASFs, which will include the use of Special Duty police services to mitigate negative impacts on police resources and responses to calls for service, as well as dedicated secure storage for the collected firearms. The estimated costs for the WPS to participate in the ASFCP are $3,490,199.

No costs will be borne by the Winnipeg Police Service or the City of Winnipeg for the WPS's participation in the ASFCP. The exception is ASFs that are determined to be crime guns and deemed ineligible for compensation, in which case associated police investigations or other law enforcement activities would be part of the WPS's regular business.

Upon expiry of the amnesty order on October 30, 2025, costs associated with law enforcement activities involving prohibited ASFs are the responsibility of the police service of jurisdiction.

The expected duration of WPS participation in the ASFCP is from January 1, 2025, to December 31, 2025.

On December 20, 2024, the Winnipeg Police Board received this report from the Winnipeg Police Service for review and consideration. On December 21, 2024, through communication from the Board Administrator, the Winnipeg Police Board advised that it accepted this report, and indicated that the Winnipeg Police Service may proceed with the submission of this report.
