EXECUTIVE SUMMARY

On June 30, 2013, the City entered into a Revised Memorandum of Understanding with Friends of Peanut Park Inc (the Friends). This is for the ongoing maintenance and future improvements undertaken by the Friends at Enderton Park (Peanut Park). Peanut Park is a City park located on Ruskin Row.

A Winnipeg resident, Michael Nesbitt, donated an art piece named "Geraldine" by artist Joe Fafard to the City which was placed in Peanut Park. It is worth approximately $100,000.00 and the Friends will receive a donation receipt for same.

The Friends will maintain the art sculpture. They will be responsible for those costs.

RECOMMENDATIONS

1. That the City of Winnipeg accept and issue a tax receipt for a gifted donation from Michael Nesbitt in the amount of $100,000.00 for the art entitled "Geraldine" by artist Joe Fafard placed in Enderton Park (Peanut Park) and included in the City's asset inventory.

2. That the City enter into, execute, and deliver a Donation Agreement with Michael Nesbitt, and such other agreements as determined necessary by the City Solicitor/Director of Legal Services to implement the intent of the foregoing (the "Other Ancillary Agreements").

3. That authority be delegated to the Chief Administrative Officer to negotiate and approve the terms and conditions of the Donation Agreement and the Ancillary Agreements in accordance with this Report and such other terms and conditions deemed necessary by the City Solicitor/Director of Legal Services to protect the interests of the City.

4. That the Proper Officers of the City be authorized to do all things necessary to implement the intent of the foregoing.

REASON FOR THE REPORT

The Standing Policy Committee on Community Services has authority to accept donations from the public for use in public parks.

IMPLICATIONS OF THE RECOMMENDATIONS

A report on the Proposed Licence Agreement between Friends of Peanut Park Inc. and the City of Winnipeg for 11 Ruskin Row (Enderton Park) will be submitted to Standing Policy Committee on Planning and Development in May. If approved, Friends of Peanut Park will assume responsibility for all expenses related to maintaining the art sculpture.

HISTORY/DISCUSSION

Michael Nesbitt, a local art collector and philanthropist from Winnipeg, has extensively contributed to the arts, education and community development in Winnipeg and throughout the country. He owned the art sculpture “Geraldine” by Joe Fafard and donated it to the City of Winnipeg to be placed in Enderton Park (Peanut Park) for public enjoyment. Geraldine is currently in place (see Figure 1, below)

Joe Fafard is a nationally and internationally recognized artist. He was born on September 2, 1942, and passed away on March 16, 2019. He was a prominent Prairie-based sculptor whose career was deeply rooted in Western Canada. Widely regarded as one of the country’s leading visual artists, his work was exhibited across Canada and internationally, including in the United States, Great Britain, France, and Japan. His contributions to contemporary sculpture significantly enhanced the national and global profile of both Saskatchewan and Canada.

A report on the Proposed Licence Agreement between Friends of Peanut Park Inc. and the City of Winnipeg located at 11 Ruskin Row (Enderton Park) will be submitted to Standing Policy Committee on Planning and Development in May. If approved, Friends of Peanut Park will assume responsibility for all expenses related to maintaining the art sculpture.

The art piece will be added to the City’s asset inventory.
