This report is silent on the dangers created by ignoring those who wander our streets while intoxicated. This report implies that the chair is OK with this huge danger.
This report is silent on laying out the form of reporting that the Board wants to see in the service's quarterly reports.
This report is silent on past peer reviews and how public input has been 'reworded" to hide what the commenter intended.
Drunk driving is still a danger after the Christmas lights are put away. Are those who crash cars all checked for BAC? Where is the report on the fraction of drivers involved in any crash, who are impaired?
The Board meets with the Chief and itself often enough. Why does the Board not invite public input on how the Service is performing? Did the Board not do this years ago? Why not now?
