Most city workers and contractors have been working every day in the past 6 years, if you believe the work-from-home narrative. If someone needs to delay the Transit plan for multiple years, the real reasons should appear here. "Global warming ate my homework" would be a lie. This covid excuse is no more credible. I suggest that Council move to cancel all further work on BRT expansion. BRT is slower than the bus it replaced. BRT is not an investment. BRT was financed in a way that violates the rule against city deficits.
