I strongly feel that this area should be preserved, ideally, as a green space (park). I live directly across from it (142 Aubrey) and have observed for several years how much daily use it gets, along with the playground decide it. Selling it as surplus can only be detrimental. There is a needed boost to green spaces in this neighbourhood and it currently already functions as the only viable grassy area to be enjoyed/used by all of the people in the nearby apartment complexes and certain homes.
